

Screening clinics resource checklist

Resources on display (English and translated)

Are you pregnant?	Compression helps us get a clearer image	Your breast screen positions

For receptionist to hand out

BSV appointment reminder card	BSV appointment reminder magnet

Screening clinics resource checklist

Resources on display (English and translated)

Your rights and responsibilities

This document details your rights and responsibilities when you use BreastScreen Victoria services.

Area	Your rights	Your responsibilities
Access	Access to BreastScreen Victoria services. Reasonable access to screening and diagnostic services.	Understanding and following the general requirements.
Quality	The clinic will offer high quality care and information to you and your support person.	Following an appointment that will not negatively impact existing care through other health care services.
Support	A respectful and culturally safe experience. Information and support to help you understand your choices.	Understanding that you may be asked to share or disclose information if you are unable to do so yourself. Understanding of the privacy policies of your service.
Information	Clear and open communication with our staff and support person. You can understand your choices.	Working with our service to understand our policies.
Participation	Take part in decisions about your care and health. You can understand our policies.	Following up with the screening specialist when able.
Privacy	Respect for your privacy and confidentiality. You can understand our policies.	Understanding and using our service information systems in a responsible and appropriate manner.
Consent	Respect for your consent and autonomy. You can understand our policies.	Understanding and using our service information systems in a responsible and appropriate manner.

Page 1 of 1 View more →

Your rights and responsibilities